

CORAC MISSION STATEMENT

CORAC is a grassroots organization dedicated to defending the traditional values of faith, family and freedom.

Our three primary goals are to:

Publicly stand for these values.

This is accomplished by connecting activists into mutual communication and collaboration with each other. Regional and local groups will independently mount events to highlight the importance and efficacy of these values in their areas, in consultation and with the support of the national organization.

Prepare people to defend themselves against any effort to outlaw or suppress these fundamental principles. Activists will organize people in their regions putting an emphasis on public defense and advocacy of these three core values. To better organize all for every contingency, specific skill sets will be identified, on a volunteer basis, including communications, medical expertise, legal expertise, farmers and hunters, logistics, food gathering and preparation, tradesmen, police and military vets, teachers and catechists, artists, writers, designers, and religious ministers.

Prepare to publicly defend any of these traditional core values that are outlawed or suppressed.
