Dear [Senator/Representative] _____ ,

I am writing to ask for your assistance in bringing justice and mercy to the January 6 detainees.

The citizens unjustly imprisoned, mostly in the DC Correctional Facility, in connection with January 6th need aggressive representation from pro bono lawyers who are unbiased politically. Their Constitutional rights to a fair, public and speedy trial have been abridged, with no outcry or protest.

DC detainees have been held in miserable conditions, in solitary confinement, where even basic needs haven't been met. They have been denied bail, and are facing harsh and completely unreasonable sentences; meanwhile they have lost jobs, homes, and families. They are at the mercy of public defenders who may be politically biased. They have been denied basic grooming and religious services. They live in grossly unsanitary conditions. Many are experiencing extreme medical neglect, with Covid-like symptoms, scurvy and other severe nutritional deficiencies, and effects of illegal beatings by guards, yet the medical personnel in the jail refuse to treat them.

THIS IS UNACCEPTABLE. These conditions are a travesty and horror to all Americans. To subject citizens to such treatment because of political bias is as low as can be.

Please don't be one of the Republican Congressmen who have completely abandoned them. The DC detainees are virtually powerless against the threat to themselves, and to the integrity of the American rule of law. If the civil rights of one group of people can be violated, then we have all lost.

It takes courage to stand up to evil, especially when evil is considered good, and good, evil. Those from the past who were reviled for it, like Rosa Parks, Ronald Reagan and the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., are now considered heroes.

The abridgement of Constitutional rights and the brutal, primitive, illicit conditions under which the detainees are being held will eventually be revealed. Those who stood by and allowed this injustice will be vilified, while those willing to stand up to the evil, will be the heroes of tomorrow.

I ask you to stand on the side of truth with fellow American patriots and to boldly speak up for the Constitutional rights of the January 6 detainees.

Sincerely,
