

Standing for Faith, Family & Freedom

Region 7 (the Breadbasket)

03/13/2021

We all have times when someone calls upon us to help with something. And times when we ask for help.

A few weeks ago, a young man had reached out to me about being his confirmation sponsor. I, like many of you, would have felt honored to be asked. It usually means they see something in you they want a part of too, or maybe they could not find another practicing Catholic. (I hope the former and not the latter. 😊)

Last weekend the young man was confirmed. The sacrament was celebrated in a particular and peculiar way. Masks (I hope we were not trying to hide from the Holy Spirit) and Q-tips for the anointing of the chrism oil. The Sacrament of Confirmation is a sacrament of the power of the Holy Spirit and our visible belief in that power. The masks and the Q-tips conveyed fear, which is not of the Holy Spirit. I thought most people knew that life is, well ... terminal. None of us lives forever in this world. “That is not to say we should seek out danger.” But it is to say we need to have faith. I guess few of us have even the faith of a mustard seed anymore. Maybe we never did. Ask for the gift of faith and you will receive the gift of faith. Matthew, CHAPTER 7:7-8.

So many people trying to protect themselves from the COVID calamity. Priests and Bishops justifying abortion tainted vaccines if nothing else is available (read link in Faith, Family & Freedom 😊). There are effective treatment protocols, if utilized early and properly, for a virus with a mortality rate of about 1.7%. Where do we draw the line? Nothing else is available because we as a Church have not drawn the line. When do we begin to take the next right step in faith? One of the next right steps is to pray for our clergy.

The lockdowns have felt like a prolonged Lent. During Lent we are to learn to lean on God and draw strength from Him. It does not appear we have learned much yet. Even in all the preparations we may be making. Are we preparing out of fear or out of faith in God? Read Luke, CHAPTER 12:16-21. Let’s check our intentions. Then “acknowledge God, take the next right step, and be a sign of hope for others.”

For some reason, justifying a vaccine with aborted fetal cells does not seem to help the common good of the child known by God. With respect, Bishop Jackels, you and many of your brother Bishops, have been embarking upon a very slippery slope. We as a Church need to seek repentance and draw the line.

With the potential passage of H.R.5: The Equality Act, will you also justify homosexual marriage within the Catholic Church for the common good? Some don't think it will ever happen. Some do. Time will tell. We need to treat all with charity, "a suffering and sacrificial love," and not condemnation; but we also need to correct error and admonish the sinner (you and I included) as a spiritual act of mercy.

Many of us thought we would never see the day when a present-day Apostle of the Catholic Church would justify abortion for the common good. Yes, Bishop Jackels, you did just that.

"Father, forgive them for they know not what they do."

Submitted this day, the 3-year anniversary of my stroke. I am humbled with how the Lord has worked with me during this time and throughout my life. I stand in awe of what else He has in store. I pray you stand in awe of how the Lord has worked with you, I know many of you do. Thank Him for his goodness in suffering too.

trust as though everything depended on God.
